A fresh take on a modern design

A translucent window gives the room natural light while also offering much-needed privacy.

Using a delicate combination of cabinetry, tiles, glass and lighting, Garrett Hebden of Better Bathrooms & Kitchens has crafted the perfect bathroom retreat.

The bathroom was part of a larger renovation with an architect called in to draft up some of the special design features and Garrett was commissioned to execute these plans and add his own expertise to the mix.

Striving to create a bathroom with many different dimensions, Garrett used only the finest quality fixtures and fittings to bring this beautiful yet functional bathroom together.

Floor-to-ceiling, mosaic lustre tiles enhance the bulkheads above the bath and wall-hung vanity, while diamond matt floor tiles continue into the step-free shower complete with a frameless shower screen, adding to the bathroom's spacious feel. A large mirror over the vanity captures the room's modern aesthetic.

An abundance of light thrown out by the LED lights dotted on the ceiling complements the unique translucent glass window that's located in the alcove that houses the hob-set bath.

The resulting space has all the appeal of a luxurious hotel bathroom. Boasting modern dimensions and a distinct brightness, the owners can soak in style. BYB
